Good Will-Hinckley, a well-known organization in the state of Maine for helping children and youth in need, operates the Glenn Stratton Learning Center (GSLC) program which offers educational services to students in grades kindergarten through twelve who experience significant social-emotional and behavioral challenges. Individualized and small group instruction is provided within a consistent behavioral structure and therapeutic milieu. Through a child centered, collaborative team approach, each student's academic, behavioral and social-emotional needs are considered. Our campus sits on a picturesque property along the Kennebec River in Hinckley, Maine. We are conveniently located approximately 30 minutes north of Augusta, and an hour south of Bangor.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate excellent communication skills, expertise working with youth and families, be knowledgeable about social services, the Maine Care billing process and mental health regulations/licensing. Knowledge of Restorative Practices is a plus. Satisfactory references, background check, pre-employment physical, and a valid Maine Driver's License are all required.

Minimum education qualifications of a master's degree in psychology, social work, human development or other mental health related fields. Must be licensed to practice in the State of Maine as a LCSW or LCPC (conditional licenses may be considered).

Benefits include a competitive salary, health, dental, long-term disability, and life insurance, Maine State Retirement and 401K.

Interested applicants please submit a cover letter and resume via e-mail to HR@gwh.org or fax to 238-4020 or mail to Human Resources, PO Box 159, Hinckley, ME 04944.
