Happy New Year!

Thank you in all of our support.

As you may know, the L.C. Bates Museum is a place that brings together art, history, and environmental science in a unique way.

The Museum building is temporarily closed due to Covid. When we can reopen, we will need your support to continue our mission.

The Museum building is open by appointment or chance, usually 1 pm to 4:00 pm and other times by appointment. April to Mid-November. Follow the hikers in January 2022.

Inside the L.C. Bates Museum

Thank you to all who support the museum.

Friends, donors, and volunteers are the heart of the L.C. Bates Museum family. They provide financial support and look forward to the new museum building repairs. They also fund efforts. Financial donations are funding collections to teach environmental science and are being cataloged by volunteers. Documented objects and made guides for visitors.

Four Colby JanPlan Interns created for visitors. They support developing new ways to use the educational kits and Nature Nuggets that are being cleaned and archivally stored.

The museum exhibits and storage and are needed. It needs help with many projects.

Museum Building Improvements

The museum building is a Late Romanesque Revival building. In 2022, the museum needs help with many projects, including additional window restorations. Work has been completed on the museum skylights and well conserved museum building repairs. In 2022, the museum needs help with many projects, including additional window restorations.
